This is likely to change throughout the year, and masks may be made optional for select classes, based on age and number of students. To regulate capacity levels and account for the ability contact trace, we ask that parents and siblings avoid spending lengths of time inside the studio. As of now, we will continue with our pick-up/drop-off procedures from the 2020/2021 season. Siblings in back-to-back classes (and their parents) may be able to stay at the studio, on a case-by-case basis, depending on timing.
